

Gun Safety

The program is designed in partnership with teachers, school administrators, curriculum specialists, urban housing safety officials, clinical psychologists, law enforcement officials and National Rifle Association firearm safety experts. This website has instructor guides offer step-by-step instruction with role-playing scenarios, discussion questions and reproducible materials. There is no certification needed to teach the program.

<http://eddieagle.nra.org/why-teach-the-eddie-eagle-program.aspx>

Program materials are available at a nominal rate. Grant funding for schools, law enforcement agencies, hospitals, daycare centers, and libraries may be available in select states to receive program materials at no cost.

If you are with one of these agencies, contact The Eddie Eagle GunSafe[®] Program to see if your state has grant funding. If you are ordering materials for a law enforcement agency, school, daycare, hospital, or library, please call the Eddie Eagle Program at (800) 231-0752 to use free grant funding. <http://eddieagle.nra.org/why-teach-the-eddie-eagle-program.aspx>

To see the list of education material go to <http://eddieagle.nra.org/program-materials.aspx>