

CALL FOR TEXAS DELEGATES FOR THE ENA NATIONAL CONVENTION IN AUSTIN

Below is a list of considerations and expectations for delegate applicants to the ENA 2019 national convention. This is an effort to better inform you of what is expected of you and what you can expect from Texas ENA, so that you can make an informed decision to apply.

You will receive delegate assistance to help cover expenses of travel, hotel and meals. This assistance is for the three days of General Assembly, when you will represent the state Texas. You are encouraged to stay for the Scientific Assembly however that is on your own expense.

Some local chapters offer additional assistance to delegates, check with your local chapter.

You will need to make travel and hotel arrangements. This should be done as soon as possible as room availability decreases the closer to conference. Delegates are selected at the July Texas ENA Council meeting. The stipend checks are sent out after this meeting.

ENA 2019 General Assembly is in Austin on September 28 and 29 and the scientific assembly is September 29-October 2. Delegates must attend the delegate meeting on Friday, September 27 at 6:00 p.m.

Texas is the state host for National ENA 2019. Listed below are the obligations as a Texas state delegate to General Assembly:

- a. Attend Delegate meeting on Friday, Sep 27 at 6:00 p.m.
- b. Attend both days of General Assembly in their entirety, Sep 28 and 29.
- c. Because we are the host state, each delegate and alternate must sign up for a volunteer session of two hours during the time of the convention (excluding GA hours) including preregistration and Scientific Assembly. Sign-up sheets will be available. Volunteer shirts will be provided by the Texas State Council, so include your shirt size on the bottom of the application.
- d. Failure to participate will result in your forfeiture of delegate assistance.

Delegate you must wear the delegate approved shirt to the General Assembly. One red shirt and one royal blue, each with the Texas ENA logo. Order forms are on the www.txena.org website. Delegates must wear black dress pants or skirt and designated shirt each General Assembly day.
